Holding a recognised qualification or a pass in a prescribed examination or assessment is one of the requirements that applicants for registration are required to meet.

Applicants must also:

- satisfy the minimum fitness and competency requirements as set out in the notice published in the New Zealand Gazette, 18 September 2008, No. 141, page 3854;
- satisfy the English language requirements of section 6(2) of the Veterinarians Act 2005 by sitting and passing a Council approved English test to the required level if English is not their first language;
- (and in the case of those holding a pass in a prescribed examination or assessment) also have a veterinary science degree or diploma of not less than four years of study.

Further detail on these requirements is set out in the registration application and examination documentation available on the Council’s website www.vetcouncil.org.nz

¹This notice replaces the Veterinary Council notice published in the New Zealand Gazette, 11 October 2007, No. 110, page 2924.

²The only change to the 2007 notice is to extend recognition of National University of Ireland, Bachelor of Veterinary Medicines to include those who graduated up to and including 1988.

³The detailed examination requirements are documented in the New Zealand National Veterinary Examination Candidate Handbook produced from time to time by the Veterinary Council and available on the Council’s website.
